e in New York

Eider-

down

Coats,

with

Regu-

MANAGORIAN SANON S

OUTER GARMENTS FOR

LADIES AND CHILDREN.

Opening Exhibition Begins To-morrow!

We are ready-are you? You know what this heralding means. Lansburgh's Garment Exhibitions are always attended by the stylish ladies of Washington. We have certainly reached the top notch in the estimation of all the Washington ladies for the style and general make up of our outer garments. You are all welcome to-morrow and every day this week to help admire the countless styles. Here are a few illustrations for you to think over.

STYLES

-1895-

AND

-1896.-

FIT AND FINISH PERFECT.

STYLE AND PRICE GUARANTEED.

WHICH YOURS.

Remember, we guarantee anything connected with the sale of the garments we stock-the PRICE, the STYLE, the FIT, the FINISH, the WEAR. This ought to speak volumes. We have been your "Coaters" for 35 years-want to be it always.

LANSBURGH & BROTHER.

420, 422, 424 and 426 7th St. in a service of the s

Cash or credit-no

It's Worth Seeing!

of a little electricity they will present a be at the Stoves look at the PRICES. You'll fin

Special in Sideboards!

We shall sell ten handsome solid oak Sideboards this week to first comers at a great reduction. Tops are 19x12 inches—forman bevel plate mirrors, 21x14 inches—2 small drawers—one lined with plush—one large drawer and 2 large clusets—price while they last.

Another lot of 12 very beautiful solid oak Sideboards will also be sactificed. They have handsomely shaped tops, 20x46 inches—3 drawers—one lined with plusa—large, double closets—fine French pattern plate micrors, 25x18 inches—price while they last.....

GROGAN'S

Mammoth Credit House-

819-821-823 7th St. N. W.

Between H and I Sts.

FINE BUTTERINE. WILKINS& COMPANY,

Times Small Ads.

Cost Less and Go Further

Than Others.

UNDERTAKERS.

J. WILLIAM LEE UNDERTAKER.

132 Pennsylvanis avenue porthwest.

First class service. Phone 1385. 1y4-5n

HICKEY—October 4, at 6:30 a. m., David Bickey, aged 37 years. Funeral Sunday, October 6, from his late residence. No. 316 C street northeast, at 2 o'clock p. m. Services at 8t. Joseph's Church at 2:30 o'clock p. m. CROMELIN-On Saturday, October 5, 1895, at Atlantic City, N. J., Ada, infant laughter of Roland F, and Lillian M.

Funeral from parents' residence, 1822 Linden street northwest, Monday, Octo-er 7, at 10 a.m. Interment private. FOOTE—Robert, infant son of Oscar and Elizabeth Foote, on Saturday morning, Oct. 5, 1895, at their residence in Wesley Heights, D. C., aged twomonths. Funeral private.

ARGUER-Notice is hereby given of the death of John N. Arguerat Providence Hospital, Oct. 3, 1895. Relatives of friends will call at R. F. Harvey's Sons, 928 Pennsylvania avenue northwest, and make arrangements for his burial within thirty-six hours. MALONY-At Chicago, Ill., on Friday, October 4, 1895, John, the beloved son of the late Stephen and Mary Malony in the thirty-third year of his age.

BROCKENBOROUGH-Departed this life, n Friday, October 4, 1895, Newman Brock-nborough, aged fifty years, a loving father.

We mourn his death.

Funeral from Mount Jezreel Church, corner Fifth and E streets southeast, Sunday, October 6, at 11 o'clock. Relatives and friends are invited.

IN MEMORIAM. In memory of our darling Julia E. R. Marks, who departed this life October 6, 1893. Born October 20, 1876. "None knew her but to love her, none named her but in praise." Her mother and brothers pour her loss.

mourn ber loss. TRODDEN—In loving rememberance of our dear monther, Aunie Trodden, who died two years ago to-day, October 6th, 1893. Rest dear mother, Gone but not forgotten. BY HUSBAND AND CHILDREN.

TOO LATE FOR CLASSIFICATION

DETECTIVE work in all its branches shadowing a specialty; very highest references, evidence obtained in all matters of a private nature, strictly confidential, MORGAN BRADFORD, JR., Office and Rendence, 731 11th st. nw. FOR RENTT—Three unfurnished front rooms, second floor, with heat, bath, etc.; refs. required. 821 5th st. nw. oc6.1s. ISRAEL METROPOLITAN C. M. E. Church, corner 1st and B sts. sw., Rev. H. Seb Doyle, M. A., pastor—Prenching at 11 a. m. and 7,30 p. m. Moming subject, "The three essentials;" evening subject, "God our refuge," Sunday-school at 9,30 a. m. L. A. Cornish, sr., supt. All invited. Seats free.

Stoll's shoes

EMRICH

Are you fond of good living? Perhaps you have a special liking for we sell it. Or maybe your partiality is for fresh

FRUIT

VEGETABLES

we keep them in abundance.

People with slender appetites are dainty about their MEATS -you cannot get better or tenderer than we supply— and don't forget that our

GROCERIES are the smallest in town

EMRICH BEEF CO.

Main market, 1306-1312 32d St. N. W. Telephone 347. Branch Markets—1718 14th st. nw; 2026 14th st. nw; Sth and M. sts. nw; 3957 Mst. nw; 2124 and K. sts. nw; 213 Indiana ave. nw; 5th and I sta. nw; 3th and I sta. nw; 3th st. and Pa. ave. nw; 13th st. and N. Y. ave. n. w.

BROOKLAND ITEMS.

Miss Ruth Marean, who has been spending the past month in Boston, returned home a few days ago.

Cant. Joseph A. Raumer and his son Xavier let yestferday for Montgomery, Ala., to remain about a month.

Miss Wolff, of Pittsburg, is the guest of Miss Wolff, of Pittsburg, is the guest for Miss Wolff, and Mrs. Green Clay Goodloe, who have been in Kentucky and New York for the past six weeks, have returned to their country place. "Woodline," where they will remain until November.

The Catholic University is now having the gas pipes placed in its different buildings, and it is probable the pipe swill be conveyed down the Bunker Hill road into Brookland some time next week.

Mrs. Behruman Divorced.

Mrs. Behrman Divorced.
Sarah D. Behrman was yesterday granted a divorce from Raphael Behrman on the grounds of descrition and infidelity.

Society People Announced as Affianced to the Wrong Individuals.

With a Divorce Sequel in Washing-ton—An Epidemic of Weddings.

The subject of innocent merriment among society folk lately has been the confusion confounded, or as one of the persons in the tase expressed it, the "confounded con-fusion," of certain betrothal announcements by the press. First came the news that Miss Lucille Blackburn would wed Mr. Edward Lane, an awkward misstatement, for Mr. Edward Lane is a resident of the Normandie. her fiance was Mr. Thomas Francis Lane, of New Jersey.

Second—Mr. Edward Plaza, second secre tary of the Mexican tegation, and a general favorite, was made aware through the social columns that his engagement to Mis-Rogers, of Pittsburg, had been promptly and emphatically denied by Mrs. Rogers and her daughter. Lately it transpired that there are two Mesdames Rogers in Pittsburg, that each is a widow, and that each has a lovely young daughter. Explanations would be superfluous. This comedy of errors has produced no little comment and some con-

Two or three are gathered together socially speaking if returns for the scason are slow, and every group is confiding to every other busy knot of chatterers the every other busy knot of chatterers the latest news.

Quite a choice, sketchy bit of gossip which occasions a regretful sort of annusment, the brightest high lights of fun being dimmed by mild pathos, is served from a certain army post not a thousand miles from New York.

"There was a lover and his lass" is, of course, the refrain that Madame Rumor is softly humming. Such a pretty little maid, with beauty, grace, gentleness, and modesty, the daughter of an army officer well known here, and a fine young fellow in the service, who is sowing his wild outs in the service, who is sowing his wild outs at the rate of sixty miles a minute. They met and loved—naturally enough. The wedding was postponed by disapproving parents—also naturally enough.

The fair one and her devoted talked it over with tears, and he finally put the situation to her in such convincing fashion that to quote her own words "she felt so sorry by him, she just consented," and was wedded. At the conclusion of the cremony they returned to their future home mony they returned to their future home and with many loving farewells, he left her on the plazza, and went off to break the news to "Manma."

On the way to accomplish his mission.

On the way to accomplish his mission, with bounding step and bright eyes, the newly made Benedict encountered a number of brother officers, and imparted to them the glad tidings of his marriage. Congratulations were in order—and drinks. They wined "to the health of the bride"—"to the health of the bride"—"to the health of the bride"—"to the health of the kappe pair" to "long life and rapid promotion of the groom"—to "long life and contentment to the bride." The father of the groom—the father of the groom—the father of the be mother of the groom-the father of the bride—the mother of the bride—the father of the father of the groom—the father of the father of the father of the father of the bride—and so on after the fashion of that popular bullad gon-cerning the varieds relationship of "112 Wild Man of Borneo". This convivial gathering was kepl up until an early hour next morning, censing only when the matual cash and credit had been exhausted.

Meantime the fair, good, silly little bride, weary of waiting, had sent for her dear tamma, confessed, and wildly deplored what papa weald say on his return to the post. With uncertain step, but highly delighted with his cordial companions, the happy, young soldier faltered homeward. Reaching the doorway he was promptly met by a brace of bulky revolvers. sride-the mother of the bride-the father nomeward. Reaching the doorway he was promptly met by a brace of bulky revolvers, poised on a level with his eyes, and held by the steady hands of his newly acquired mother-in-law, who, in stern, unaclenting tones, forbade him the house. The young woman's now in Washington, the guest of friends, and, it is sald, divorce

Poor, pretty, little girl! "Every man," it has been said, "has his

What womankind will pay to acquire him is daily demonstrated by international marriages. The latest development in statistics, however, is the price the new woman will pay to get rid of him. Last week a car went out from Wash-ngton, crowded with excursionists of the gentler sex on their way to the Minne-apolis Episcopal convention. Every berth had been taken but two, and the perfidious conductor had sworn solemnly-only to allow possession of those to women. Hardly had the train gone a hundred miles on its way, when two masculine invaders entered and presented their tickets. There was wild excitement, and such unreasonable terms as "traitor" and "dissembler" from these

Seeing by sidelong and withering glances that he was most unwelcome, man No. I withdrew, but No. 2 was less complaisant and more tenacious of his rights. He disregarded the whispers, the hissing comments, the swish of petticoats indigmantly flouncing about the aiste, frowningly arranged his various bags and books, unfolded his newspapers, and prepared to make a long and comfortable journey. The miserable conductor was meanwhile surrounded by a well-dressed mob who persistently demanded that the intruder be ejected. Approaching the rightful owner of the berth, who showed his temper in the most pronounced manner, the trem-bling official with diplomatic conversa-tional skill, and submitting patiently to many insults, persuaded him to remove to ronowing his windrawar a mass meeting was held and it was resolved that the two berths must be bought to insure "our having it all to ourselves."

A stern loooking lady, from Boston, who it was whispered "had lots of money" imtediately purchased No. 10, while the other women, who were all from Washington, obtained in eightness conticated, and secured. chipped in eighteen cents each, and secured

The new woman of this city, it thus appears by figures, is willing to pay as much as eighteen cents to be rid of masculine vocal, instrumental or recitative.

A few "Dont's" to those benevolent sonis who are about to interest themselves in musical entertainments for charity this "Don't" select lullables, dirges, or laments.

"Don't" include the trenulous and feeble soprano who sings as if she had only just swallowed a fluttering English sparrow.
"Don't" engage the volunteered services "Don't" engage the volunteered services of the basse genius who "would have a splendid voice if it was cultivated."
"Don't" intrust numbers to the contratto whose reverberative tones seem to have been brought to present perfection by instruction in a territory where carthquakes are matters of almost daily occurrence.
"Don't" allow the lamps to glare all unshaded in the tired eyes of the drowsy audience, as tissue naner is cheap and young audience, astissue paper is cheap and young women are always ready to prettify things. "Don't" allow small boys to hover about the doors playing prants during the per-

Cormance.
Light, bright music, humorous or senti-Light, bright music, humorous or senti-mental recitations with an occasional del-cately sad melody, or bit of verse for shadow, will not be amiss, but "Don't" be grave and gruesome. This much-needed suggestion comes from a number who suffered last season and have decided un-less these reforms are instituted to "never go there any more."

Mrs. George Bloomer has returned to the city for the season and is at her home on Massachusetts avenue. Mrs. Bloomer has recently sold her exquisite country resi-dence in Greenbrier country, Virginia, near the White Sulphur Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dix are again at home. No. 1777 Massachusetts avenue, Mrs. Justin Butterfield will be with them Death of an Old Plane Mover. Lieut. Lemly, U. S. A., who while lately

JUST A COMEDY OF ERRORS Dress for the Little Ones.

Want to tell you mothers about a special lot of infants' and children's COLORED CAPS. These are made of BENGALINE and are lined. The dainty little caps come in cardinal, tan, brown and navy blue-made with wide strings and have pretty lace edging to the face. Price is only 48c.

And then some very pretty IN-FANTS' SHORT COATS of all wool EIDERDOWN, in white, red, tan and gray, large sleeves. Coats are trimmed with ribbon and braid. These are really $2.50 values that we offer you at $1.97.

Bon Marche,

314 and 316 7th St.

returning home from South America was bitten on the leg by a very poisonous snake somewhere near the Magdacha River, is still at Providence Hospital under the care

An international engagement of interest is that of Mrs. Sherman H. Hubbard, daughter of the late Chief Justice, John Lindling, of Louisiana, to Mr. Chas. F. Stead. of London. The marriage will take place this winter.

Cards are out announcing the wedding of Miss Margaret McDonough to Mr. Francis Harwood Bronaugh, at St. Mark's Church, Wednesday morning, October 16, at 11

Mr. and Mrs. John Summerfield Swerm-stedt have issued cards for the marriage of their daughter. Mand Carter, to Mr. George Allen Prevost, Wednesday evening, October 16, at 6 o'clock, at Ganton-Temple Memor-ial Presbyterian Church. Miss Swermstedt is a lovely blonde, quite a favorite socially, and Mr. Prevost is a well-known lawyer precentor of Gunton-Temple Memorial Church.

Miss Minnie Olson Rankin will be marmiss amone Oson Rankin will be mar-ried to Mr. James Edgar Mitchell Wednes-day moralog, October 16, at McKendree M. E. Church, at 9 o'clock. Miss Rankin is a daughter of Mrs. Margaret E. Rankin, of M street northwest. Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell will be at home to friends after November 10 at No. 1533 Sixth street

Miss Bessie Bain Dent, of Washington, and Lieut, Gerrich Smith, U. S. N., will be married in New York Wednesday, October 9, at noon. Mrs. Ulysses Grant, unit of the bride-elect, and Mrs. Sartoris, her cousin, will be present at the wedding.

Miss Mae Elizabeth Riordan and Mr. Jules R. Kane were married in this city Saturday morning, September 25, Rev. Father Ryan officiating. The ceremony was solemnized at the Church of the Im-maculate Conception.

A delightful musical entertainment was A denginal murcal entertainment was given on Monday evening last at the homeof Mrs. F. Buchler, of I street southeast. Miss Sarah Caster and feveral members of the Parroll Institute Orchestra rendered tuneful selections. MissDats/Buchler, sang sweetly several operatic selections, and Mr. E. R. Ocket also gave a vocal solo. Dancing was enjoyed later.

Assistant Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. McAdoo have returned from a season spent in the mountains of northern New York.

Cards have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Parker for the marriage of their daughter, Grace Darling, to Mr. Joseph L. Jennings, of New York, which will occur Wednesday morning, October 16, at St. Stephen's Church, Mount Pleasant, D. C.

General and Mrs. Breckinridge are again in Washington after a delightful reason at Lake George. They occupied the charming Gabbett cottage, on an island, near Hague.

Miss Mary Virginia Swan, day Miss Mary Virginia Swan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Swan, will be married to Mr. Harvey N. Dorsey, Wednes-day evening, October 9, at 8 o'clock The ceremony will take place at Gunton Temple Memorial Church.

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Reed have sent out invitations to the marriage of their daughter to Mr. Malvern H. Price. The ceremony will occuir Thursday, October 17, at 10 o'clock a.m. at Calvary Paptist Church, corner H and Eighth streets north-

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Martin have issued cards for the wedding of their daughter, Nina Leontine, to Mr. John Chiton Maynard, Wednesday, October 16, at Hamline M. E. Church, at 12 o'clock.

Mrs. A. P. Gardner, daughter of Hon Henry Cabot Lodge, is one of the dashing horsewomen of NewEngland, and is a favorite chaperone in Boston's smart set Miss Edythe Carter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Carter, of this city, will be married to Mr. Gurden Chaple, manager of the Bancroft. Wednesday morning, October 9, at 10 o'clock, at Trinity Church.

Mrs. Richard Townsend has returned from Bar Harbor and is at the Arlington. A very bengiful miniature portrait of Mrs.
Townsend's young daughter, the work of Amelie Kusser, the famous artist, is among her most treasured possessions.
The fair young girl is painted in a lownecked court gown, the bodice of gold pompadour silk, striped with pale blue, and the background is delicate and effec-

Mrs. Parthenia Thyson has returned to Montreal after a visit at her son's, Mr. H. G. Thyson, No. 914 T street northwest.

A. Campbell Gibbs, nephew of Charles N. Gibbs, ex-secretary of State of Tennessee, and Miss Ida A. Foote, daughter of Henry W. Foote, of this city, were married in the presence of a few intimate friends at the Metropolitan Methodist Church, yesterday evening, at 7 o'clock.

Clear-Out Sale of the Stock of Carbart & Leidy by M. Goldenberg. When Mr. M. Goldenberg, of Baltimore, purchased the stock and fixtures of the de-funct firm of Carbart & Leidy, 928 Seventh street northwest, he realized at once that before he could do business in his own pro-gressive, up-to-date way, he must first dispressive, up-to-date way, he must first dis-pose of the old stock.

This he immediately proceeded to arrange to do, and on Monday morning, bright and early, the doors will open and the mammeth sale will begin. The half-page adver-tisement in this issue give the prices and de-tails of the sale and no one should miss it, as tails of the sale and no one should miss it, as the prices are literally the lowest ever heard of in Washington. Silks, corsets, black goods, domestics, coats, capes, fur capes, men's goods, laces, men's hose, linings, blankets, comforts, children's underwear, ladies' hose, men's underwear, children's hose; all these lines are to be mercilessly slaughtered in order to make room for the new stock.

John Armstrong, one of the oldest and best-known plane movers in the city, died on Saturday morning at his home from a stroke of paralysis. He had been in the employ of the Metzerotts for eighteen years.

The Talk of the Town

Our great Opening was the wonder of all Washington ladies. Such an array of beautiful Cloaks and Millinery is seldom seen, and the prices came as a perfect revelation. Do not delay-come and get your pick, before the best has been snapped up.

MILLINERY. |$1.50 Children's Coats, 69c.

$1.00 and 75c Sailors,

Walking Shapes & Plats., 26c. 50 doz. Ladies', Misses' and Children's Sailors, Walking Shapes and Flats in black, blue, brown, tan, gray, and red. Best American Felt. Only ......26c sleeves -all sizes 32 to 44-in two deep pointed Capes, trimmed with Angora Fur, Tan, Gray, Mauve, etc.

price, $1.50......69c

25c Children's Hose, 12c.

50 doż. Boys' and Girls' Ribbed Hose - warranted lengths, 27 inch and 30 fast black-double kneesinch Box Coats. Regular Hermsdorf dye-all sizes 5 $5.50 price. Monday only, to 9. Regular price, 25c.

King's Palace,

812 and 814 7th St. N. W. 715 Market Space.

www.www THESE PRICES CONTINUE ON MONDAY.

Large hardwood pastry boards, will not warp...... 20c 1/2 doz. fine thin water tumblers and nickeline tray...... 276 Japanned cuspidors..... 50 1/2 doz. silver plated forks, 1/2 doz. table Finely decorated jardinieres, embossed "Cupids," 7 different styles..... 37c Decorated toilet sets with jar, gold lines, only one to each purchaser ..... $3.37 Decorated dinner and tea sets combined. handsome design, quality guaranteed, 1/2 doz. stone china cups and saucers, all perfect ..... 25c Best quality 4-string parlor brooms..... 150

UNIVERSAL HOUSEFURNISHING STORE. 512 Ninth Street N. W.

MAMMAN

KENSINGTON NEWS NOTES. Misses Nannie and Mollie Wheatley, of fest Washington, are guests at Oak noll, the home of their grandfather, Mr. H. Wheatley. Misses Ida and Grace Polkinhorn, of ashington, are the guests of the Misses Harr.

The regular meeting of the town conneil will be held on Monday evening at the residence of Nayor R B betrick. At this meeting it is expected that a successor to Mr. E. J. Hardesty, who has resigned from the council, will be appointed.

A station-bouse at the terminus of the Kensington and Chery Chase Electric Road will soon be erected by the company. The increase of travel and the approach of cold weather makes this improvement necessary.

necessary:

Mr. H. C. Armstrong, who has been a resident of Kensington for the rast six months, has purchased three lots here, mon which he expects to creek a dwelling months, has purchased three lots here, upon which he expects to creet a dwelling house.

An unusually pleasant and well-attended meeting of the Library Association of the St. Paul's M. E. Church was held on Friday evening at the hence of Mr. W. H. Wheatley, with the president in the chair. The following programme was reinfered: Vocal solo, Miss Grace Fowler, of Washington, piano solo, Mrs. Florence Gould; recitation, Miss Lydin Fowler, vocal solo, Miss Annietta King, of Washington; piano solo, Miss Fowler, vocal solo, Miss Annietta King, of Washington; piano solo, Miss Fowler, vocal solo, Miss Annietta King, of Washington; piano solo, Miss Fowler, the most defend of the control of the co

TAKOMA PARK NOTES.

Mrs. Randolph Reixey, who has been visit-ig her sister, Mrs. A. D. Whitmer, left for er home in Culpeper, Va., Thursday morn-her home in Culpeper, Va., Thursday morning, Mr. Howard Balley, of Newark, N. J., is at home for a short visit with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Swormstedthave issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter Maude to Mr. George A. Prevost, on Wednesday evening, October 16, at GuntonTemple Memorial Church, Washington, D. C.
The semi-annual business meeting for election of officers and committees of the Y. P. S. C. E. was held on Tuesday evening, resulting as follows: President, Laura Skinner vice president, Edith Burrill; secretary, Mrs. Bertha Burch; corresponding secretary and treasurer, Ethel D. Mooers.
The usual committees were also appointed.
Mayor S. S. Shedd and Miss Amy Shedd have returned, after an absence of several weeks. Mrs. Shedd was detained in Buffalo on account of the serious illness of her father.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Childs expect to occupy their new home, now in course of erection on Mapie avenue, by the last of November. Mr. Charles Heaton has with him his mother, Mrs. Heaton, of Washington, for a

ALEXANDRIA HAPPENINGS.

Mr. A. A. Lipscomb, the county candidate for the Democratic nomination to the house of delegates, was in the city yesterday afternoon, with Mr. Curtis B. Graham, chairman of the County Democratio Committee, looking after his fences. Mr. Lipscomb expects to carry the county and to get all its delegates. He will also poll quite a heavy vote in this city, and it would have been much larger had be entered the light sootier and made a close canvas. The primary election, which will choose delegates to the insmining convention, will be beld on Tuesday next, in both city and county. The polls will be opened at surise and will close at sunset.

will be opened at suurise and will close at sunset.

Lieutenant L. H. Hollinberger, chief of the Washington Detective Bureau, has requested the Alexandria Police department to look out for a dark bay horse and a black sidebar buggy, which was stolen in Washington on Thursday morning last, by a buggarian anned Benjamin Adler, from Mr. John H. Garges.

William H. Harrison, a luckster from Washington, came to this city vesterday morning, with a load of veretables and started to peddle them from door to door, in violation of the city license law. Officer Jones arrested him, and he had to leave $10 collateral for his appearance when wanted, on Monday morning.

Mayor Luther Thompson left vesterday for a two weeks' trip to New York and Boston, During his absence Mr. Hobert Showden, president of the common conneil, will be the acting mayor.

Thecommissioners appointed by the county court to condemn land in Alexandria county for the use of the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Verson Electric Railway, resterday condemned six-tenths of an acre of land through the center of the Virginia Brick Company's works hear county for the use of the washington, Alexandria and Mount Veraon Electric Railway, gesterday condemned six-teuths of an acre of land through the center of the Virginia Brick Company's works hear Waterloo. The company is allowed $2,500 for the land and the removal of four of their kilns.

Rev. S. A. Wallis, of the Theological Seminary, will remain in charge of Old Christ Charch auti the vestry selects a rector to succeed the late Rev. Br. Henderson Suter. Mr. Wallis will be assisted by the other professors at the seminary.

Several of the working in the Southern Railway shops here have been init of for ten days by the railway authorities for having left their work for a few minutes tolook at the liberty bell as it passed through the city on Friday morning.

Marriage Licenses.

Marriage Licenses, Licenses to marry have been issued as

A. Campbell Gibbs, of Union City, Tenn., and Ida A. Foote. Henson Holland and Agnes Jackson. Burnett T. Trueworthy, jr., and Lillia M. Schneider. Lewis Smith and Cordelia Brooks.